How my committee process works:

There are three members: The First Vice President, Second Vice President and the immediate Past President, who is chairperson. The First and Second VPs serve on the committee until they vacate their respective officer positions, at which point the members filling those positions will join the committee. The immediate past president serves until the current president leaves office and becomes chairperson. In the event that one of the committee members is the subject of an investigation or is unable to serve, that member shall recuse him or herself and the Recording Secretary becomes the third member for the duration of the investigation.

The duties of this committee are to investigate reports of neglect of duties. This shall be accomplished in the following way:

- 1) Upon the request of the President and with adequate documentation of the alleged problem, a letter of inquiry will be sent by the Chair to the person in question expressing concern and offering assistance, with copies sent to all members of the Committee and the President. A self-addressed stamped envelope will be included with a prompt response to the Chair requested.
- 2) If there is no satisfactory response and/or additional written complaints are received, a second letter (again with SASE) would be written expressing increased concern and explaining the additional complaints and insisting on temporary assistance and/or offering the option of resignation. Copies of this second letter would be sent to all members of the Review Committee, President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Corresponding Secretary, Recording Secretary, and Treasurer.
